Hi Olivier,

Guess what! I made a photo album for my aunt.

I decided to prepare it because my aunt is interested in travelling and she has many photos from her trips. It's a great present because she'll be able to keep all her memories in one place. I also think such a handmade gift will make her happy.

My sister helped me while I was making the album. She's really good at art so she decorated the cover with colourful drawings and added some creative decorations inside. We also selected the best photos together.

My favourite picture is the one which shows my aunt during her trip to Spain. She's sitting on the beach with her husband and they're smiling joyfully. In the background there's a breathtaking sunset.

I hope she'll be pleased with my present.

Take care,

XYZ
